Hi Alan--

Got your vm. Attached are the categories we're using for the updated summary comments. We used your coding but when we looked at the comments that fell out under each category, there was a lot of duplication among some (e.g., the "ENV" comments were all captured elsewhere so didn't make sense to have separate ENV categories when other summary comments would capture the points made).

We're making progress but it's slow going. However, we've made it through the meatiest (AWQMAPs and pesticides) so hopefully the others will go more smoothly. (Note red notes that we've finished that one).

Allison
